Remedy Interactive Named Among “Best Places to Work” in San Francisco Bay Area for Second Consecutive Year

SAUSALITO, CA – June 10, 2009 — Remedy Interactive Inc., a leading provider of enterprise software solutions that help organizations prevent workplace injuries and reduce injury-related costs, today announced that it was named among the 100 “Best Places to Work in the Bay Area” for 2009 by the San Francisco Business Times and Silicon Valley/San Jose Business Journal. This year, Remedy Interactive ranked 6th in the small business category of companies with at least 50 employees. In 2008, the company ranked 7th in the same category.

“At Remedy Interactive our mission is to be the company the world trusts to create injury-free and productive workplaces,” said Kim Lopez, CEO of Remedy Interactive. “By creating an environment where our own employees thrive and stay healthy, we hope to influence more companies to prioritize injury prevention and wellness in their workplace. This award is a testament to our progress on both of these fronts.”

The annual “Best Places to Work” survey is conducted by the San Francisco Business Times and Silicon Valley/San Jose Business Journal. Winning companies were evaluated based on employee responses to a satisfaction survey on a range of topics including work culture, management practices and employee benefits. The entire list of winning companies appeared in a special May 1, 2009 edition of both publications.
